

DRCA Disaster Response Capabilities Statement for Hurricane Ian Date 9.28.2022

In an effort to assist Ian survivors and the public sector in the coming hours, days and weeks, the following reflects the response and recovery capacity of Disaster Recovery Coalition of America (DRCA) members who can provide products, services and capabilities. Please contact Casey Long, DRCA Executive Director at 202-441-0493 or at clong@thedrca.org for further information.

Coastal Cloud

- Inventory tracking
- Resource mapping
- Time tracking
- Sheltering needs
- Workflow automations
- Financial management
- Invoice automations and management
- Call centers
- Project management
- Contract automations
- Technical integrations

Custom Tree Care, Inc.

- emergency road clearance
- debris removal
- debris reduction
- hazardous tree removal

DSW Homes

- Current operations: 6 fully staffed offices serving the entire state of Florida.
(Lakeland, Miami, Jacksonville, Orlando, Panama City, Fort Myers)
- Construction and program management
- Insurance compliant mitigation & restoration services
- Personal dedicated to Florida disaster recovery: 100
- Drying units in possession: 500
- Rapid survey teams: 20
- Statewide accessible Sub-contractor pool:
 - Type: demo, roofing, asbestos mitigation, dry wall, framing, electrical, HVAC

Ducky Recovery LLC

- Roofing / Blue Tarp - we have a roofing company just outside of Tampa
- Mobile Housing Solutions - both temporary and permanent
- STEP / Rapid Repairs - currently active in FL DEO Irma and Michael Recovery
- Rehabilitation - currently active in FL DEO Irma and Michael Recover
- Project Management / General Contracting

DRCA Disaster Response Capabilities Statement for Hurricane Ian Date 9.28.2022

Hill International

- Construction Management
- Damage Assessment /Inspection (Xactimate)
- Applied Building Science
- Engineering Services

IBM:

- Management Consulting
- Technology Consulting
- Data Management – figuring out how many people need assistance, already have assistance, tracking trailers/mobile homes given out, etc.
- First responder services through chat bots – helping FEMA and/or United Way or other agencies with answering questions about hotel availability, airport availability through chat bot functionality. We have deployed this with United Way in FL the past.
- Project and program management – we can get people to FL if needed.
- We have offices in Florida and the surrounding states. If FEMA needs a space to run their disaster operations, we are happy to make IBM offices available to them.

Jacobs

- Rapid Survey Teams
- Construction Management
- Damage Assessment
- Applied Building Science
- Engineering Services
- Mitigation Services
- Housing Logistics

Lemoine Company

- Flood restoration capabilities
 - 500+ personnel with rapid scalability
- Heavy equipment
 - 10 personnel
- Logistics
 - 8 personnel
- Debris removal/monitoring assets
 - Automated Debris Management System
 - 150 debris monitoring personnel with rapid scalability
- Housing & sheltering
 - 150 inspectors/case managers with rapid scalability
 - Trailers for rent and for sale
- Generators
 - 50+

DRCA Disaster Response Capabilities Statement for Hurricane Ian
Date 9.28.2022

Lemoine Company (cont.)

- Mobile power generation
 - 50+
- Housing inspectors
 - 100 personnel with rapid scalability
- Consulting
 - 80 personnel
- Tax/accounting
 - 16 personnel
- Project/program management
 - 20 personnel
- Rapid Survey Teams
 - 6 personnel
- General Contractors
 - 35 personnel
- Construction Management
 - 45 personnel
- Large Scale Drying Equipment
 - .5M CFM
- Damage Assessment Companies
 - 110 personnel with rapid scalability
- Applied Building Science
 - 20+ personnel
- Mitigation Services
 - 500+ personnel with rapid scalability
- Data Management Solutions

TFR, Inc.

- (50) Hauling Units
- (50) CDL Drivers
- (25) Specialized Heavy Equipment
- (25) Equipment Operators
- (8) Diamond Z Tub Grinders

The Sulzer Group (certified women owned small business)

- Public Assistance Program Management for subrecipients (local governments/agencies and private nonprofit organizations especially schools, healthcare and houses of worship)
- Project/Construction Management
- Damage Assessment/Estimating (residential and commercial)
- Water mitigation and mold remediation
- Debris Monitoring
- Individual Assistance and Case Management

DRCA Disaster Response Capabilities Statement for Hurricane Ian
Date 9.28.2022

Tidal Basin

- EOC Support / Staff Augmentation
- Damage Assessments
- Inspections
- Debris Monitoring
- Call Center Support
- Temporary Housing and Sheltering Program Support
- FEMA Public Assistance Support
- FEMA and HUD-funded Hazard Mitigation Support
- Permanent Housing Program Support
- Program/Project Management
- Grant Management
- Disaster Case Management
- Construction Management
- After Action Reports
- 1,000 personnel to support the Ian response and recovery efforts.

United Rentals (prepositioned assets)

- Generators
- Pumps
- Light towers
- Trucks
- Loaders & Onsite Services (portable restrooms) for deployment into the affected areas