Dear Chairman Johnson,

The Disaster Recovery Coalition of America (DRCA) strongly supports the nomination of Brock Long to serve as Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

DRCA believes Mr. Long's emergency management background in both the public and private sector will be invaluable in helping FEMA develop the critical partnerships necessary to succeed in its mission of helping America respond to and recover from natural and manmade disasters."

DRCA's membership believes Mr. Long's background serving in senior roles at FEMA, the State of Alabama's Office of Emergency Management and at Hagerty Consulting will give him the experience, perspective and ability to strengthen public-private partnerships to improve FEMA's ability to provide critical support individuals, families and entire communities following disasters across the country.

DRCA supports Mr. Long as the next Administrator of FEMA and looks forward to working closely with him and his leadership team. Furthermore, DRCA strongly encourages the Senate to confirm Brock as FEMA Administrator as swiftly as possible as hurricane season is already underway.

Sincerely,
