

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 21st, 2020

Contact: Casey Long
clong@thedrca.org

Disaster Recovery Coalition of America (DRCA)
Commends Gaynor Confirmation
FEMA Will Continue its Promising Future Under Gaynor's Leadership

Washington DC – January 21st, 2020

The Disaster Recovery Coalition of America (DRCA) salutes the U.S. Senate for their leadership in confirming Mr. Pete Gaynor as the Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). "Pete Gaynor has served with distinction in America's emergency management field and personifies the meaning of public service," said Daniel Craig, DRCA Chairman. "Administrator Gaynor's commitment to our country and the safety of Americans is second to none and his ability to lead, especially in times of need, is an inspiration."

One of Gaynor's hallmarks is his vision and recognition of the importance of planning and preparing for disasters. His resiliency track record and instincts will continue to energize the disaster recovery foundation of the entire FEMA team and those such as DRCA in FEMA's public private partnership role. DRCA is privileged to support Mr. Gaynor's and FEMA's emergency management efforts so that we can, in close partnership, continue to strengthen the disaster recovery framework when the time comes. DRCA is looks forward to many accomplishments in local, state and national levels as we assist in shaping impactful public policy to create a better and more resilient America for all.

About Disaster Recovery Coalition of America (DRCA)

DRCA is the only 501(c)(6), non-profit, trade association advocating for the common interests of disaster recovery business leaders at the federal, state and local levels of government. DRCA members and business partners fulfill America's mission of preparing for, responding to, recovering from and reducing the losses caused by disasters and are the nation's top emergency management experts representing over 15 industries. DRCA's membership provides a broad range of critical emergency management related products services and capabilities.

###