DRCA Background:

DRCA is a 501©6 non-profit association which was organized to educate government decision makers and public opinion leaders on the industry's role in helping constituents prepare for, respond to, recover from and mitigate against disasters, and to advocate for government support on issues unique to the disaster recovery industry.

DRCA is governed by a leadership team which has a wealth of emergency management expertise and industry knowledge. DRCA's Chairman of the Board is a former FEMA Regional Administrator and former Director of FEMA's Recovery Division. DRCA's Management Team includes multiple FEMA Division Directors bringing policy and technical expertise to the organization. DRCA's membership is made up of organizations and individuals representing over 15 industries who provide a broad base of critical emergency management related capabilities and support.
